The British courts have ruled that Julian Assange should be extradited to Sweden, where he faces trial on sexual assault charges. Mr Assange's supporters have said this is part of a plot to extradite him to the USA. Two years ago Mr Assange went to Ecuador's embassy in London and was granted asylum. He has been living in the Ecuadorian embassy in London ever since, as if he left the embassy to travel to Ecuador he would face arrest by the British police. Do you think Britain should...?

Currently homosexual men cannot donate blood unless they have not had sex for 12 months. Generally speaking, do you think that homosexual men should or should not be allowed to give blood at any time (i.e. even if they have had sex within the past 12 months)?
