Which of the following best reflects your view?

There are some cases where it should be legal to provide services and spaces that are only for women who were female at birth, even if that means excluding transgender women	62	59	57	66	61	62	61	60	68	68	60	64	57	74
All women's services and spaces should be open to transgender women, and it should never be legal to exclude someone because they are transgender	22	25	27	20	20	21	23	23	18	20	23	21	24	8

In July, the Labour party announced that in government it would reform the Gender Recognition Act so that applications from people wishing to change their legally recognised sex would no longer have to be decided by a panel of doctors and lawyers. A diagnosis of "gender dysphoria" will still be required, but can come from a single doctor.
