The following are ideas that have been put forward as part of the debate on NHS reforms. Generally speaking do you think each is a good or bad idea?

Allowing the NHS to spend money on services from any willing provider- by this we mean that other organisations, including private companies or voluntary organisations, can bid to provide selected services that the NHS will pay for rather than directly supply

The way in which the NHS spends its money needs to be reformed, as increased life expectancy and new drugs mean it is always becoming more expensive to run.
