Some transgender people have gender reassignment surgery. This is surgery by which a transgender person's physical attributes are altered to match the gender they identify with (e.g. breast and genital surgery).

Do you think a transgender woman who has not had gender reassignment surgery should or should not be allowed to...

The Equality Act protects people against discrimination based on protected characteristics, which include sex. There is debate over how "sex" in the Equality Act is defined, and whether it means biological sex (that is, people's biological sex at birth) or includes transgender people who have legally changed their sex. Would you support or oppose changing the Equality Act so that sex is defined as meaning "biological sex"?
