Mark Duggan was shot by armed police officers in August 2011. His death was followed by an outbreak of rioting in cities across in London. This week an inquest found that the police officers had acted lawfully after an inquest that concentrated on whether or not Duggan had a gun with him, whether it was in his hands at the time or whether he had already thrown it away. From what you have seen or heard about the case, do you think...

Mark Duggan was lawfully killed by police officers who genuinely thought he had a gun

Mark Duggan was unlawfully killed by police officers who had no lawful reason to shoot him
