Vince Cable has been secretly recorded by undercover journalists criticising government policies and saying he had "declared war on Rupert Murdoch". As Business Secretary Mr Cable would have been required to make the final legal decision on whether or not to allow Mr Murdoch's company's bid to buy the rest of BSkyB.

David Cameron has announced that Mr Cable will no longer be able to make the decision over the BSkyB takeover, but will be allowed to remain Business Secretary.

Do you think Mr Cable should or should not lose his job as Business Secretary over what he said to the undercover journalists?
