There is free movement within the European Union, so that Britons can live and work anywhere in the EU, and people from other EU countries can live and work in Britain, although it will be some years before this right applies fully to the most recent countries from Eastern Europe to join the EU. From 1st January 2014, the Government will be lifting all border restrictions for people from Romania and Bulgaria to live and work in Britain. Overall, do you support or oppose the lifting of all border restrictions to the citizens of Romania and Bulgaria?
