David Cameron has said that individual government ministers will be free to campaign either for or against British membership of the European Union in the forthcoming referendum. Which of the following best reflects your view?

Individual government ministers should be free to campaign either for or against EU membership, even if this means there is no clear government line, with some ministers for and some against

The government should have a clear line in favour or against EU membership and all government ministers should back it. Ministers should have to resign from the government if they want to campaign for the other side
