The former cabinet minister Chris Huhne and his former wife Vicky Pryce have each been sentenced to eight months in jail for perverting the course of justice after she took driving licence points for him after he was caught speeding in 2003. As non-violent offenders they are expected to be released from prison after two months and have to wear an electronic tag.

Thinking specifically about Chris Huhne, do you think this sentence is too long, too short or about right?
