Thinking about the election results from May 3rd, which statement comes closest to your view?

The election results were because we're in the middle of our third term. All governments struggle in between elections, and Labour is no different. If we hold our nerve, we can still win the next General Election	45	46	43	44	46	45	39	51
The election results should sound an alarm bell. If we don't change the way we do things, and change some of our policies, then we could lose the next election	45	48	41	48	41	41	50	44
