There is a suggestion that the 1998 Human Rights Act, which incorporates the European Convention on Human Rights into British domestic law, is proving damaging and should be repealed. What is your view?

The Act is valuable in protecting human rights in Britain and should be retained	25	8	39	37	28	23	26	29	22	28	24	27	23	30	26	24
The Act is turning out to do more harm than good and should be repealed	46	77	32	31	51	41	33	41	60	41	51	46	45	34	47	43

There is also a suggestion that, because Travellers (sometimes called Gypsies) have been camping without permission on other people's land, trespass under these circumstances should be made a criminal offence. What is your own view?
