extradition. The wife of a US diplomat based in Britain has returned to the US after being involved in a car crash which killed another person. The UK government has requested that she be extradited to Britain so police can question her on her role in the incident. It is possible that she could be charged by British police with a crime and would potentially face arrest, trial and jail in the UK if found guilty.

Would you support or oppose accepting the UK government's request to extradite the individual?
