Q1	Choose which of these statements best describes how Australia should be involved in the world. Single select, rotate	Ask all
	<1> Playing a leading role in global institutions aimed at strengthening and defending democracy and human rights around the world.
	<2> Only being involved in global institutions and alliances where it advances our national interests.
Q2	Since the Russian invasion of Ukraine in February 2022, Australia has provided over $1billion in aid to Ukraine including over $880million in Military aid. Which is closest to your view? Single select, rotate	Ask all
	<1> We must help Ukraine. Defending democracy isn't easy, fast or cheap. But it is the right thing to do.
	<2> We have done enough, it is time to wind back spending on Ukraine and prioritise the issues back home.
Q3	Are you concerned at all about the prospect of Donald Trump being re-elected as President of the United States in November of this year? Single select, rotate	Ask all
	<1> Yes
	<2> No
Q4	Are you concerned at all about the prospect of Joe Biden being re-elected as President of the United States in November of this year? Single select, rotate	Ask all
	<1> Yes
	<2> No
Q5	Which is closest to your view? Single select, rotate	Ask all

	<1> The alliance with the United States is fundamental to Australia’s defence and national security, and who is President of the United States does not substantially affect the longstanding relationship with our most important military and security ally.
	<2> If Donald Trump was re-elected President, it would be in Australia’s best interest to develop a more independent defence and national security capacity, as we could no longer rely upon the United States as we have in the past
Q6	The International Criminal Court Chief prosecutor has sought arrest warrants for both Hamas Leader Yahya Sinwar, and Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and other key leaders on both sides for alleged war crimes and crimes against humanity in the current conflict in Gaza. The independent judges of court will have to decide if there is enough evidence to justify issuing these warrants. Which is closest to your view?	Ask all
	Single select, rotate
	<1> The ICC prosecutor’s application for arrest warrants against Israeli Leaders is outrageous.
	<2> Australia should respect the ICC and its independent role upholding international law and support its role in investigating the conduct of both sides.
Q7	If the International Criminal Court decides there is enough evidence of crimes against humanity to issue an arrest warrant for either Hamas Leader Yahya Sinwar or Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, should Australia arrest them and send them to the court for trial if they visited Australia?	Ask all
	Single select, grid, rotate rows
	-[Q7_1] Hamas Leader Yahya Sinwar
	-[Q7_2] Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu
	Rotate Columns
	<1> Arrest
	<2> Not arrest
Q8	WikiLeaks publisher Australian Julian Assange has been imprisoned in Belmarsh Prison in the UK for more than 5 years while fighting extradition for trial in America over publishing US classified documents in 2010. Which is closest to your feelings about the Julian Assange case?	Ask all
	Single select, rotate
	<1> Julian Assange is only being pursued because he exposed shocking evidence of misconduct by the USA, and that Australia should ask the USA and UK to bring this matter to a close so Mr Assange can return home to be with his family in Australia.

	<2> Julian Assange put the lives of US Intelligence operatives at risk in publishing those documents and it is time he faced trial in the USA for his actions, where if he is found guilty he should serve a lengthy jail sentence there.
