20. Favor Replacing the Electoral College with Direct Election

In the U.S., the president is chosen through the Electoral College. Each state receives electoral votes based on its number of senators and representatives, and most states award all their votes to the candidate who wins the statewide popular vote. An alternative method would be direct election, where the president is chosen by the nationwide popular vote, with the candidate receiving the most votes winning. Do you favor or oppose replacing the Electoral College with direct election by popular vote?
